RE: Directory: Groups Concerned with Adult Corrections

The enclosed Directory was compiled by individuals from the Missouri Association for Social Welfare, the Missouri Catholic Conference, and the Missouri State Library. In addition to listing groups trying to bring about change in adult corrections, government agencies and institutions are also included. We hope this Directory will serve as a useful reference for those interested in adult corrections here in Missouri.

FOREWORD

In this directory we have tried to include groups attempting to br'ng about change in adult corrections in Missouri. We have also listed government agencies and institutions involved in the adult corrections process. As may be expected, these attempts take quite a variety of forms, and often appeal to the public to see the realities of the correctional system (e.g., church groups performing volunteer work, projects offering career education to offenders and ex-offenders, etc.). We have not listed groups which offer a wide variety of social services, unless these were specifically aimed at changing the correctional process, or the effects of that process. The listings themselves were compiled from information solicited from and submitted by groups on application forms. We may have inadvertently overlooked many groups which should be included. But we have tried to provide a sound basis for selection, which will enable future editions of the directory to incorporate those groups left out of this first edition. Information in this directory is listed in the following order: Name, Address, Telephone Number, Contact Person, Purpose of the Group, Services and Programs, and Publications. Not all of these were available for each group.
